

TOP 5 SHOWS OF THE WEEK

1.Porgy and Bess

Clarke Peters (pictured with Nicola Hughes as Bess) is superb as the disabled beggar, Porgy, in Trevor Nunn's exuberant re-invention of the Gershwin brothers' folk-opera of black working-class life. Altogether - "Summertime and the living is easy..."

2.The Lightning Play

The talented team of writer Charlotte Jones (Humble Boy) and director Anna Mackmin bring a hilarious new production, exploring middle class guilt, to the Almeida (see reviews).

3. 2Graves

An extraordinary performance from Jonathan Moore in Paul Sellar's verse monologue set in the East End underworld, about a son seeking to avenge his darts-playing father.

4. Monty Python's Spamalot

Very funny musical adaptation of the Pythons' Holy Grail film. Tim Curry and Hannah Waddingham star.

5. The Seafarer

Conor 'The Weir' McPherson's latest captivating drama about the effect of alcohol on the human psyche.
